

Public Law 96-194
96th Congress

Joint Resolution

To validate the effectiveness of certain plans for the use or distribution of funds appropriated to pay judgments awarded to Indian tribes or groups.

Feb. 21, 1980

[S.J. Res. 108]

Whereas, pursuant to Public Law 93-134 (Act of October 19, 1973; 87 Stat. 466; 25 U.S.C. 1401), the Secretary of the Interior or his designee has submitted plans for the use or distribution of funds appropriated to pay judgments awarded to Indian tribes or groups; and

Whereas none of such plans have been disapproved by congressional action; and

Whereas a recent July 9, 1979, decision of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in the case of Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida versus Andrus has called into question the effectiveness and validity of those plans submitted to Congress under Public Law 93-134; and

Whereas it is the purpose of this resolution to validate the effectiveness of the plans (other than the plan involved in the Seminole decision and a plan involving the tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation which is the subject of pending litigation) which were submitted to the Congress pursuant to Public Law 93-134: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following plans for the use or distribution of funds submitted to the Congress pursuant to Public Law 93-134 are hereby declared to be valid and effective as of the dates indicated:
